Indian Academic participant (Including Accommodation)	Rs 9,000
Indian Student participant (Excluding Accommodation)	Rs 3,000
Indian Student participant (Including Accommodation)	Rs 5,000
Industrial participant (Excluding Accommodation)	Rs 25,000

SPSI-Macro Conference is an international conference series held in India every two years and conducted by the Society for Polymer Science, India (SPSI, www.spsi.co.in). The 15th conference in this series (SPSI-MACRO-2018) will be jointly hosted by Indian Institute of Science Education and Research Pune, CSIR-National Chemical laboratory (CSIR-NCL), and Savitribai Phule Pune University (formerly: University of Pune).

SPSI-MACRO-2018 will be held in the city of Pune on several thematic topics of polymer science and technology and the conference will have about 10 plenary talks, 100 invited talks, 50 short talks and 450 posters presentation. The conference will host many distinguished academic personalities, industrial leaders and new entrepreneurs across the globe as speakers and participants. SPSI-MACRO-2018 will provide the platform for many young researchers and students in India and abroad to learn about the advancements in the field of polymer science and technology.

Research Themes

- Controlled Polymer Synthesis and Architectures
- Supramolecular Polymers and Nano-assemblies
- Bio-inspired and Bio-derived Polymers
- Polymers in Health Care and Medical Diagnostics
- Polymers in Renewable Energy Application
- Soft Materials and Rheology
- Theory, Simulation and Modelling of Polymers
- Functional Polymers and Composites
- Advanced Processing and Manufacturing of Polymers
- Polymers Designed for a Circular Economy
- Polymers for 3D Printing and Additive Manufacturing
- Educating Chemists: Role of Polymer Science in Chemical Education

Half-day parallel event for school students by top scientists on
"Polymers in Modern Technology"
